

Instructor activity regulation changes

We value our instructors and recognise that it is becoming increasingly difficult for instructors to take time away from work to teach on our courses, so in response we are changing our activity regulations for all our courses. The new regulations will continue to support the credibility, commitment and currency of all ALSG instructors.

Instructors earn 1 x ALSG teaching credit for each course day they instruct on and are allowed to teach on single days of courses, as long as they teach on the minimum requirement for their provider course type (see below).

Credibility: Instructors are required to teach on one course each year, for each ALSG provider course type they teach on.

There is no annual teaching requirement for the Facilitation course, GIC, 1-day provider courses or recertification courses, but instructors will still earn ALSG teaching credits by teaching on these courses.

Commitment: Instructors are required to earn 5 x ALSG teaching credits every 2 years. This is the minimum commitment for maintaining instructor status. It is acknowledged that many instructors may benefit their own CPD by teaching on more courses and also by supporting allied courses such as the GIC, PLS etc.

Currency: For ALSG VLE format courses instructors will be required to complete the e-module topics every 2 years. Instructors will earn 1 x ALSG teaching credit for completing all the e-modules.

We have updated all the course regulations to reflect the updated system.

If you have been unable to teach regularly and your active instructor status has lapsed please visit the instructor FAQs on our website to access information about coming back on board, via the following link: http://bit.ly/Inst\_FAQs.

Thank you for your continued support.