

Barbara Phillips

Since retirement, Barbara Phillips has been involved in humanitarian work with ALSG's partner MCAI (Maternal and Child Advocacy International) in West Africa in many projects to train local health workers in the emergency care of mothers and children.

In her professional career she was a Consultant in Paediatric Emergency Medicine, first at Booth Hall Children's Hospital in Manchester from 1987 – 1996 and then at Royal Liverpool Children's Hospital, Alder Hey from 1996- 2006.

She was instrumental in establishing and developing Paediatric Emergency Medicine in the UK. She was also involved at a national, European and international level in the development of Guidelines for Resuscitation.

Barbara has been involved with ALSG since the early years and was the first Chairman of the International APLS Working Group. She has two daughters and four grandchildren.

